Dianas Name Mrs. Williams As 'Citizen'

Mrs. Raymond Williams, 4702 Reese Rd., Torrance has been selected as "Citizen of the Year" to represent the Redondo Beach Dianas Junior Woman's Club in the California Federation of Women's Clubs Marina Citizen of the Year contest. There are 12 Junior Women's clubs in the Marina District. Each club submits an entry and the member which seems most qualified will then be entered in the State CFWC contest. The winner will be announced at the district convention slated for April.

Mrs. Williams has been active in church, PTA, the Dianas and many other organizations.

For church, she teaches in the primary, works on the Halloween carnival, knits sweaters to sell at church bazaars, volunteers to work at the cannery and helps with church welfare.

The year of 1964-65, she was philanthropy chairman and Build-a-Better Community chairman for the Dianas. During 1965-66 she serves as ways and means chairman.

For PTA, Mrs. Williams is the record book chairman and also a room mother. The Little League also gets her assistance with help at a booth.

Even the neighbors benefit from her kindness, when a new family moves in she has a get acquainted dinner, and at Christmas time she entertains all the neighborhood children.

In addition to all this, Mrs. Williams has a family of four children, ages 9, 7, 6 and 4. Her husband is an optometrist. The Williams have been married fifteen years.

Weekend Guests

Miss Elaine Blair and Miss Carla Williams, members of the choral group of the Dakota Wesleyan University, which was on tour in California, spent the weekend here with Miss Blair's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara. The group appeared at the Community Methodist Church in Lakewood on Sunday night.
